

CLASS EXPECTATIONS

Recognize Your Strengths

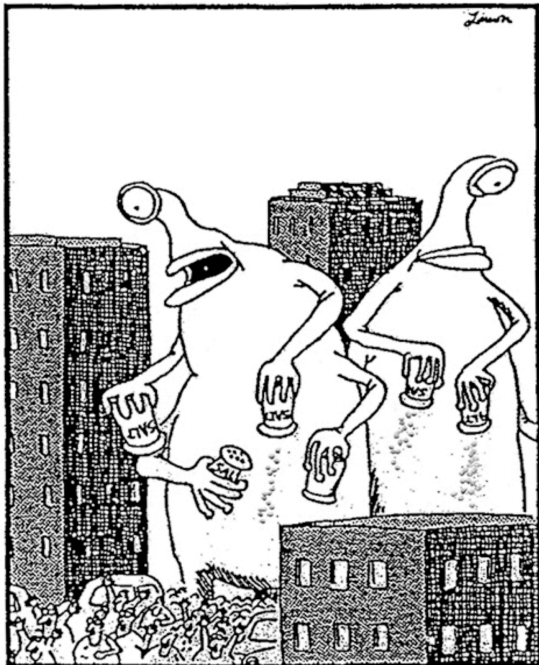

"And you, Johnson! You stick with your man and keep that hand in his face!"

Use Your Sense When Answering Questions

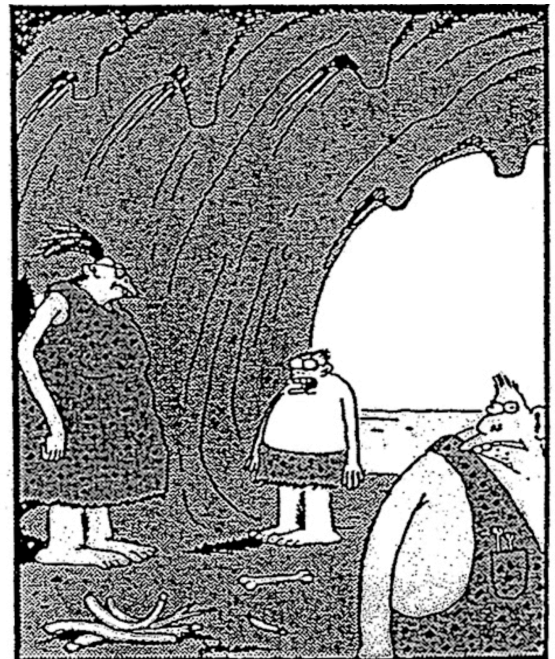

"Bob and Ruth! Come on in. — Have you met Russell and Bill, our 1.5 children?"

Try Different Approaches To Problem Solving

"Well, this is getting nowhere fast."

Be Nice

"Mom! The kids at school say we're a family of Neanderthals!" — Is that true?"

CLASS EXPECTATIONS

Show Courtesy and Respect

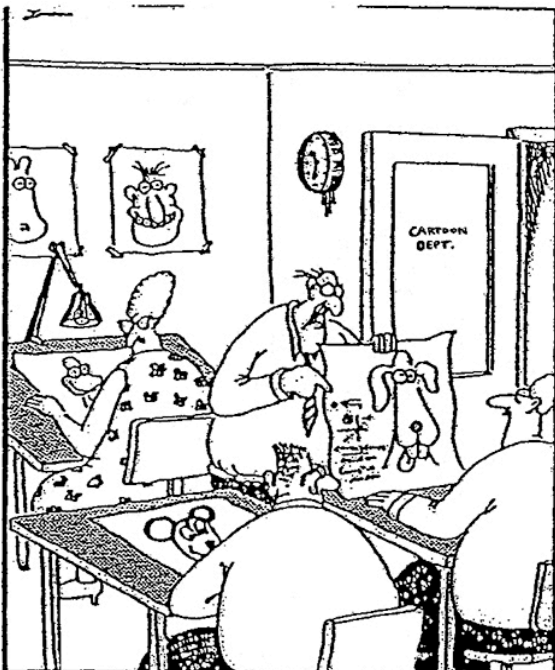

All night long, a tough gang of astrophysicists would monopolize the telescope and intimidate the other researchers.

Come Prepared to Class

"Well, down I go."

Pay Attention

"Hey! What's this, Higgins? Physics equations?
— Do you enjoy your job here as a cartoonist,
Higgins?"

Don't Get Discouraged

"Oh my God! It's from Connie! She's written me
"John deer" letter!"
